

MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS OF THE REPUBLIC OF UZBEKISTAN
UNIVERSITY OF WORLD ECONOMY AND DIPLOMACY

ANNUAL WORK PLAN

for 2026 of course coordinators of the University of World Economy and Diplomacy

Tashkent-2026

T/r	Measures to be implemented	Implementation mechanism	Deadline	Responsible persons
I. Work to be carried out in the field of spiritual-enlightenment and moral education
1	To familiarize students with the university Charter, Internal Rules and Regulations, the “Code of Conduct and Ethics,” and normative documents on internal rules and procedures.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To familiarize course students with the content and essence of the “Code of Conduct and Ethics”; 2. To carry out explanatory work on compliance with the laws and regulations governing the educational and upbringing process of the higher educational institution; 3. To submit proposals to the administration of the educational institution and the faculty regarding taking measures against a student in cases where the rules of conduct and ethics and other internal regulations are violated. 	Year 2026 February– September	Youth Affairs Office, faculty deans, PR and Marketing Office, faculty course coordinators
2	Organizing events throughout the year to increase students’ spiritual, moral, and educational engagement and activity.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To conduct the “Independence Lesson” in all educational institutions based on lecture texts, presentations, and videos on the topic “For the Motherland, for the People, for the Nation”; to assist in organizing cultural and educational events under the slogan “For the Motherland, for the People, for the Nation.” 2. To hold a spiritual event involving students on the topic “Professional Excellence – a Guarantee of Personal Growth.” To foster students’ interest in their profession and develop motivation to become qualified and knowledgeable specialists with excellent mastery of their field in the future. 3. To take measures to organize a professional exhibition within the “TalabaExpo-2025” framework of the “Step into the Future” program for university graduates. 4. To conduct online roundtable discussions with first-year students in faculties on the topic “My Chosen Specialization.” 5. To continuously organize events in educational institutions involving professors, lecturers, and young promoters based on projects such as “My Teacher – the Light of My Life” and “My Philosophy of Life” among students. 6. To organize a series of spiritual and educational events and competitions at the university under the theme “The State Language 	Year 2026 February– September Year 2026 April–May and November– December September 2026 October 2026	First Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs and Spiritual-Educational Work O. Yusupdjanov, Academic and Teaching Staff Office, Youth Affairs Office, faculty deans, PR and Marketing Office, faculty course coordinators

		15. To organize online training sessions for women in the system, with a deep understanding of the essence of the Laws “On Protection of Women from Harassment and Violence” and “On Guarantees of Equal Rights and Opportunities for Women and Men,” as well as other laws, resolutions, and decrees adopted by the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan aimed at protecting the rights and interests of women.
3	To ensure the regular participation of students in various competitions at the university and national levels.	1. To organize the university selection stage of the “Student Theater Studios” competition. 2. To organize the university selection stage of the “Values of My Homeland” competition. 3. To actively participate in the selection and final stages of the “Uzbek Language – Interpreter of My Heart” competition. 4. To implement the project “My Contribution to the Development of the Motherland” aimed at supporting students’ creative and intellectual thinking. This includes: essay competition “Corruption – a Threat to the Future”; drawing competition “The Youth of Uzbekistan through My Eyes”; article competitions on the topics “Great Children of My Motherland,” “I Am Proud to Be from Uzbekistan,” and “Serving the Motherland – My Great Goal.” 5. To actively participate in the final stage of the “Expert of Reforms” competition. 6. To organize the university selection stage of the “Field of Enlightenment” competition. 7. To participate in the university stage of the “Most Active Student of the Year” competition. 8. To actively participate in the selection stage of the anti-corruption knowledge competition. 9. To organize the university stage of the “Book Is My Friend” competition.	October 2026 October 2026 October 2026 November 2026 December 2026	Center for the Five Important Initiatives, University Theater Studio, faculty deans, all course coordinators, Sports Club, Student Council, Youth Union, PR and Marketing Office

		10. To organize the university-level selection stage of essay competitions on the topic “Jadids: Ideas of National Identity, Independence, and Statehood” at a high level. 11. To actively participate in the final stage of the online reading competition “League of Book-Reading Youth.” 12. To actively participate in the regional stage of the Republican competition “Heirs of Mirzo Ulugbek.”	December 2026
4	To organize “Future Hours”	To organize weekly enlightenment sessions aimed at explaining the essence of reforms being implemented in all sectors of our country, events taking place abroad, newly adopted laws, Decrees, Resolutions and Orders of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, Resolutions and Orders of the Cabinet of Ministers, as well as normative legal documents and instructions adopted in the higher education system.	February–May and September–December 2026	Faculty course coordinators, Faculty professors and lecturers
5	To organize mass sports competitions involving faculty students.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To increase students’ physical activity, encourage interest in various sports, and organize “Faculty Cup” tournaments in team sports among students of relevant faculties. - To actively participate in the 2nd regional stage of the “Five Initiatives Olympiad” sports competition. - To actively participate in the autumn season of the “Run, Student” sports competition. - To organize the 1st higher education institution stage of the “Students’ League” sports competition. - To actively participate in the 3rd national stage of the “Five Initiatives Olympiad” sports competition. - To actively participate in the autumn season of the “Run, Student” sports competition. - To organize football, table tennis, and badminton competitions between university students and youth of the neighborhoods attached to the JIDU Sports Club in connection with October 1 – Teachers’ and Mentors’ Day. 	March-October 2026 October 2026 April 2026	Center for the Five Important Initiatives, JIDU Theater Studio, faculty deans, all course coordinators, Sports Club, Student Council, Youth Union, PR and Marketing Office

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To hold the “Rector’s Cup” in volleyball, football, swimming, chess, table tennis, workout, and badminton. - “Student’s Cup – 2026” football competitions. - To actively participate in the sports month under the slogan “Athlete – Defender of the Nation!” - To actively participate in the final stage of the “Minister’s Cup” wrestling competition. 	May 2026 June 2026
6	To study the ancient and rich history of our country, widely promote it among young people, and strengthen their sense of national pride and honor, to organize cultural excursions for professors, lecturers, and students under the theme “The Memory of Our Ancestors Is in Our Remembrance.”	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Under the slogans “Theater – a Place of Education” and “Travel Across the Homeland,” to organize cultural excursions for professors, lecturers, and students under the themes “The Memory of Our Ancestors Is in Our Remembrance” (Adiblar Alley, sacred sites), “Uzbekistan – A Paradise Land,” “Why We Love Uzbekistan,” and “On the Path of Development,” with the aim of studying our country’s ancient and rich history, widely promoting it among youth, and strengthening their sense of national pride and honor. 2. With the intention of leaving good memories of university days in the minds of our graduating students, to organize trips for students who have completed their internships and are only left with their graduation defense to cities such as Samarkand, Bukhara, or Khiva during their free time. 3. To conduct educational practical sessions at museums and historical sites in Tashkent city, including the “Museum of Victims of Repression,” the Victory Park, and the Adiblar Alley. 	April 2026 April 2026 May 2026	Center for the Five Important Initiatives, JIDU Theater Studio, faculty deans, all course coordinators, Student Council, Youth Union, PR and Marketing Office
7	To familiarize university students with the activities of the legal clinic and to actively involve them in the clinic’s activities.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To organize the selection of students for participation in special training sessions of the legal clinic in the new academic year based on competitions and interviews. To discuss and approve the new educational-practical program and the legal clinic’s teaching plans with professors and lecturers of the Faculty of International Law. 2. To hold the traditional scientific-practical conference of legal clinic students. 	September-October 2026	Legal Clinic Z.Ubaydullayev, I.A. Cherkashina

		3. Within the framework of legal clinic projects, in particular Street Law, Legal Clinic for People with Disabilities, “Swallow Project” “Ecological Legal Clinic,” and “Migration and Citizenship,” to ensure the participation of legal clinic member students in trainings, scientific seminars, and international conferences in accordance with their planned activities.
8	To establish a continuous student support system.	To identify talented students among students during the semester, involve them in various competitions and contests, and cover their achievements in mass media; to encourage them at the end of each semester; to form lists of winning students; to involve students in various competitions and contests (academic, artistic, cultural, creative, and sports fields); and to establish a database of winning and prize-winning students.	May-December 2026	Center for the Five Important Initiatives, faculty deans, all course coordinators, Sports Club, Student Council, Youth Union, Student Scientific Society, PR and Marketing Office.
9	To regularly conduct promotional activities on the university’s official pages and other social media platforms.	To establish channels and groups on the internet and social networks (Telegram, Instagram, YouTube, Facebook) under the title “Great Figures of My Homeland,” where intellectual quizzes, tests, and online competitions will be conducted. In this regard: to provide information about the lives, scientific and creative works, and exemplary contributions to the development of the state and society of great scholars, commanders, state and public figures who emerged in the territory of Uzbekistan; to prepare video clips narrating the lives and works of well-known scientists, entrepreneurs, writers, cultural and artistic figures, and sports personalities of our country who have achieved significant success, particularly highlighting exemplary stories from their school years.	November 2026	Center for the Five Important Initiatives, faculty deans, all course coordinators, Student Council, Youth Union, PR and Marketing Office, G. Shakirova, Student Media Group.
10	Information and resource readiness in the field of spiritual and educational activities at the university.	1. To ensure the provision of visual, illustrative, promotional, and educational materials within the university premises, as well as on websites and internet pages, including banners and wall displays containing slogans, wise sayings, and messages related to science, education and upbringing, innovation, self-awareness and patriotism, as well as physical education, sports, and reading culture; to prepare electronic special stands and handouts reflecting	September 2026	Center for the Five Important Initiatives, faculty deans, all course coordinators, Sports Club, Student Council, Youth Union, Student

		faculty rating indicators under the Five Important Initiatives, and to organize their dissemination. 2. In cooperation with regional departments of the Ministry of Ecology, Environmental Protection and Climate Change and relevant organizations, to create thematic theatrical performances, films, and promotional videos on the subject.	September 2026	Scientific Society, PR and Marketing Office Center for the Five Important Initiatives, Eco-Club members, deputy deans, course coordinators, Youth Union, Student Council
11	To promote our ancient values among course students, organize national holiday celebrations in a festive spirit, and arrange memorable events for students.	To organize an “Osh Competition” among students with culinary skills at the course level on the eve of the Navruz holiday, and to promote the principles of tolerance by demonstrating our national values and traditions among young people.	March-October 2026	Relevant faculty dean, deputy dean, faculty, course coordinators
12	To organize preventive measures in cooperation with the university prevention officer and law enforcement agencies.	1. To implement measures aimed at preventing offenses and criminal activities among youth, focusing on the prevention of unlawful behavior and criminal acts. 2. To hold webinar roundtable discussions on the topics “Let Us Turn Patriotism into True Belief” and “The Uzbek Young Man – the Defender of Independence,” involving military experts. 3. To conduct the “Life Without Corruption” campaign. Within the campaign: to organize awareness-raising events on the topic “Corruption – the Enemy of Development,” webinar roundtable discussions with the participation of law enforcement officers, and competitions. 4. To organize meetings with partner organizations on topics such as “The Armed Forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan – the Guardians of Peace and Stability,” “The Influence of ‘Temur’s Code’ on Youth Education,” and “Freedom of the Motherland – the Highest Happiness.”	Throughout 2026	Youth Affairs Office, faculty deans, JIDU prevention inspector, all course coordinators, Student Council, Youth Union, PR and Marketing Office.

		5. To organize individual preventive educational talks on a scheduled basis with students showing signs of susceptibility to religious extremism and radicalism. 6. To conduct individual or group explanatory work with aggressive students who have committed or are prone to committing acts of violence, in order to address and mitigate the negative consequences of their behavior. 7. Day of Prevention of Offenses and Crime.
13	To strengthen the system of working with students living in rented accommodation and student dormitories.	1. To regularly study and monitor the living conditions of students residing in student dormitories and rented accommodation on a weekly basis. To organize events on the topic “Ensuring safety and public order among youth, and preventing offenses and crime.” 3. To train students who have committed or are prone to committing acts of violence to openly express their emotions and control their behavior without violating or infringing upon the rights of others. 4. To organize “Family Environment” meetings with parental participation for students living in student dormitories, aimed at integrating a home-like environment, positive psychological well-being, communication with parents, and the educational process.	Throughout 2026	Faculty dean, deputy dean, course coordinators
14	To continuously monitor the socio-psychological condition of course students and to assist in forming psychological profiles of newly admitted students.	1. To study the social status of assigned students (based on all criteria related to their family situation). 2. To compile a summarized socio-psychological profile for each student and categorize them accordingly. 3. To form a list of the “socially risky group.” 4. To organize general preventive measures with students based on their socio-psychological profiles. 5. To work individually with the family members of students in the risk group.	Throughout 2026	First Vice-Rector for Youth Affairs and Spiritual-Educational Work O. Yusupdjanov, Youth Affairs Office, University Psychologist, faculty deans, course coordinators

15	To work on students' issues and problems.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To establish continuous communication with students, study their personal and professional interests, and provide individual and group counseling aimed at developing these interests. 2. To create conditions for the social adaptation of students with disabilities and promote the principles of inclusive education. 3. To systematically organize work with students with disabilities studying at the university; to take measures to implement inclusive education. 4. To organize an online psychological service at the university and monitor individual consultations and communication sessions conducted by psychologists with students. 5. To assist international students in developing adaptation skills and creating a supportive psychological environment. 	Throughout 2026	Youth Affairs Office, faculty deans, Youth Union, PR and Marketing Office, University Psychologist
16	Activities to be implemented within the framework of the Five Important Initiatives.	1st initiative: Activities aimed at increasing students' interest in music, painting, literature, and arts include establishing the "Youth" theater studio and national song and dance ensemble, and equipping them with necessary instruments. Organizing competitions on topics such as "My Beautiful Uzbekistan in My Imagination," "Theater – a Place of Inspiration," and "Poetry and Melody"; holding the university stage of the "Student Theater Studio" festival; organizing exhibitions of students' creative works, their developments, and educational awareness campaigns; holding webinar meetings, literary gatherings, and artistic evenings with artists, writers, poets, and performers; organizing the "Drawing in My Imagination" exhibition. 2nd initiative: To organize webinar meetings and master classes with Asian, world, and Olympic champions and competition winners in various sports. To widely promote the achievements of our country in sports among youth by conducting master classes based on visits to the "Olympic Glory Museum." To establish sports clubs in various disciplines after classes at faculties; to hold a cross-country race competition for the "Golden Autumn" prize (3000 m for boys, 2000 m for girls); and to organize seminars, trainings,	Throughout 2026 June-September 2026	Center for the Five Important Initiatives, Academic and Teaching Staff Office, faculty deans, all course coordinators, Student Council, Youth Union, PR and Marketing Office

		discussions, lectures, and conferences to promote physical education, mass sports, and a healthy lifestyle. 3rd initiative: To popularize computer programming and esports among students. To organize IT training courses; to conduct online quizzes and programming competitions; and to organize the “Knowledge Competition.” 4th initiative: To organize weekly literary presentations in academic groups once a week. To implement the educational project “My First Book,” within which students’ creative works will be published as a collection. To increase students’ interest in reading through projects such as “I Became Friends with 10 Books in a Month – 100 Books in a Year” and “Jewels of the World,” and to systematically conduct online competitions at the university level and encourage winners. To compile a list of “100 Books Every Student Must Read” and organize reading of these works throughout the year on the university website and social media platforms, along with videos and printed promotional materials. To organize “Book Festival” and “Book Fairs” under themes such as “The Book is a Miracle” and “Love for Books is Love for Spirituality and Enlightenment.” To implement the “Let’s Read Together” project. To organize campaigns such as “A Teacher’s Gift of 3 Literary Books to Students” and “A Leader’s Gift of 10 Literary Books to the Educational Institution.” To organize literary and artistic evenings dedicated to the works of Uzbek writers and the anniversaries of great thinkers. 5th initiative: To fully involve students in educational processes, ensure their employment, and effectively organize their free time. To organize short-term courses in sewing, embroidery, and national handicrafts at the university. To hold psychological seminars and trainings on the topics “Girls’ Gathering” and “Preparation for Family and Marriage.”	June-September 2026 Throughout 2026 June-September 2026
--	--	---	--	--

II. Activities to be implemented in the educational and teaching-methodological sphere.

17	To monitor students' classes, attendance, and the quality of teaching during the educational process.	2. To work in cooperation with the faculty dean's office to eliminate issues in the educational and upbringing process. 3. To provide conclusions and proposals regarding students' class attendance, academic performance, and role in social life, as well as their eligibility for encouragement, disciplinary action, and special scholarships. 4. To maintain attendance records of students' class participation and regularly submit reports to the faculty dean's office on measures to be taken regarding unjustified absences.	Throughout 2026	Relevant faculty deputy dean, course coordinators
18	To receive and review students' appeals and requests.	To receive, analyze, and address oral, written, and electronic appeals submitted by students, to seek solutions to them, and to provide students with information on the outcomes.	Throughout 2026	Relevant faculty deputy dean, course coordinators
19	To ensure that fourth-year students carry out their activities related to practical training in accordance with the "JIDU Academic Regulations" in the prescribed manner and within the established deadlines.	To explain to fourth-year students the full content and essence of Clauses 168–204 of the "JIDU Academic Regulations," to carry out monitoring of compliance with these provisions during the internship period, and to regularly discuss the results.	February-May 2026	Relevant faculty dean, internship supervisors, course coordinators
20	To monitor students' attendance and their daily participation at internship placement sites during the practical training period.	To maintain daily attendance records of students' participation in internships and their on-site training activities, to monitor students' completion of daily reports/journals at internship sites, and to regularly submit reports to the faculty dean's office regarding appropriate measures to be taken against students who fail to attend internship sites without valid reasons.	February-May 2026	Faculty dean, internship supervisors, course coordinators
21	To continuously monitor the student database in the "Hemis" system.	1. To develop a general electronic database of students. 2. To monitor students' academic performance indicators. 3. To establish a database of orphaned students, students who have lost their breadwinner, students with disabilities, low-income students, and students from large families. 4. To enter and study students' place of residence addresses.	Throughout 2026	Faculty Course Coordinators

		5. To provide support to students with disabilities, orphans, students deprived of parental care, and low-income students.
22	To participate in the formation of class timetables and the assessment process.	To assist administrative offices each semester in the processes of developing class timetables and assessment activities. In particular, to consider students' suggestions in timetable planning, identify the most convenient study times for them, work with underperforming students to ensure their engagement in classes, and participate in entering students' grades into the Moodle and "Hemis" systems, etc.	Throughout 2026	Faculty Course Coordinators
23	To strengthen the system of cooperation with students' parents.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To regularly organize communication with parents regarding students' attendance at internships, behavior, and level of activity. 2. To support strengthening parents' role, responsibility, and mutual relations in the upbringing of their children. 3. To regularly inform and update parents on students' academic and educational process, as well as their class attendance. 	Throughout 2026	Faculty Course Coordinators
24	Activities aimed at improving the quality of education and academic responsibility.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To conduct awareness-raising activities on academic integrity, the rating regulations, and internal rules and procedures. 2. In cooperation with the Chief Specialist of the Dean's Office, to assist in assigning additional scholarships to students with excellent academic performance in all subjects. 	Throughout 2026	Academic Quality Assurance and Standardization Office, faculty course coordinators
25	Measures aimed at identifying educational and methodological issues.	To identify educational and methodological issues by subject that arise during students' studies and practical training, and to submit proposals to the dean in this regard.	Throughout 2026	Faculty dean, faculty department professors and lecturers, course coordinators

26	To guide students to adhere to the principles of academic integrity.	To thoroughly inform students that during the semester they are required to fulfill the assigned academic workload and fully comply with academic integrity rules when completing current, midterm, and final assessments, as well as to explain in detail the ethical implications of non-compliance with these rules and the possible consequences it may lead to.	Throughout 2026.	Faculty Course Coordinators
27	To support students with disabilities and those who are raised in orphanages, and to create opportunities for their academic, scientific, and social development.	To provide appropriate support for students requiring special attention in accordance with established procedures. In cooperation with the Chief Specialist of the Dean's Office, to ensure the assignment of scholarships exceeding the basic stipend amount for such students. To provide explanations on preparation for graduation qualification work and assessment criteria, and to organize defense schedules for students' selected topics by departments.	March-October 2026	Faculty dean, course coordinators
28	To coordinate the system of working with students' scientific supervisors in preparing for graduation qualification work and to continue cooperation with assigned academic supervisors.	To compile a list of students with academic debts and assist them in completing their failed courses prior to the graduation qualification defense stage.	April-May 2026	Faculty dean, students' academic supervisors, course coordinators
29	To assist in eliminating academic debts and preparing students for the thesis defense stage.	To systematically work with scientific supervisors and students who have successfully completed their practical training and have no academic debts, to finalize their graduation projects and ensure their participation in the final defense of their graduation qualification work.	May-June 2026	Faculty dean, course coordinators
30	To provide practical assistance to students without academic debts in registering for the graduation qualification examination.	To organize the prompt preparation of diplomas, which represent the culmination of four years of study, and to ensure the timely and complete provision of necessary documents requested by employers.	May-June 2026	Faculty dean, course coordinators
31	In cooperation with dean's office staff, to organize the preparation of diploma projects for students who	To organize the graduation ceremony under the leadership of the university administration with the participation of students' parents, and to award certificates of appreciation and commemorative gifts	June-July	Faculty dean and staff

	have successfully defended their graduation qualification works, to prepare electronic versions of their diplomas, and to issue the original copies after their review and approval.	to parents of students who have demonstrated strong academic performance and exemplary conduct throughout their four years of study.	2026
32	To organize graduation ceremonies for faculty graduates and to award them diplomas and commemorative gifts.	To organize the graduation ceremony under the leadership of the university administration with the participation of students' parents. To also award certificates of appreciation ("Tashakkurnoma") and commemorative gifts to the parents of students who have demonstrated strong academic performance and shown themselves positively in all aspects throughout the four years of study.	July 2026	Faculty dean, course coordinators
III. Activities to be implemented in the field of science, innovation, and research.
33	To ensure students' active participation in international grants and projects.	1. To compile and publish a list of international grants and projects. 2. To organize the encouragement of students actively participating in science and research by the leadership of the educational institution and public organizations.	Throughout 2026	Faculty coordinators, Students Scientific Society representative, UWED Students' Council
34	To support students' advancement in the field of science.	1. To assign students to professors and lecturers under the "Mentor–Apprentice" system. 2. To provide students with guidance in writing scientific articles and support in their publication. 3. To identify talented students, provide targeted training, and direct them to scientific circles and innovative startups.	Throughout 2026	Faculty course coordinators, relevant faculty deputy dean, faculty department heads Students Scientific Society representative UWED Students' Council
35	To involve students in various scientific events.	To organize master class sessions on writing theses and articles with the participation of professors and lecturers.	Throughout 2026	Faculty course coordinators, deputy dean, Students Scientific Society

IV. Activities to be implemented in the organizational and functional sphere.

36	To identify students in need of social protection.	To update the list of orphaned students, students with disabilities, and low-income students.	Throughout 2026	Faculty course coordinators
37	To monitor tuition fee payments of students studying on a contract (fee-paying) basis.	To conduct meetings with students who are delaying tuition payments and submit the payment list to the faculty dean.	Throughout 2026	Faculty course coordinators
38	To work with students studying on a retake (trimester) basis.	To compile a list of students involved in retake studies and monitor their payment status.	Throughout 2026	Faculty course coordinators
39	To assist students in effectively using university information resources and other sources.	To assist students in effectively using university information resources and other sources, and to provide immediate practical support when they encounter difficulties in using them.	Throughout 2026	Faculty course coordinators
40	Activities to ensure the employment of graduates.	To assist in ensuring the employment of graduating students by establishing continuous cooperation with national and republican-level organizations, international organizations, private companies, and non-governmental non-profit organizations. They include: -The Senate of the Oliy Majlis of the Republic of Uzbekistan, -The Legislative Chamber of the Oliy Majlis of the Republic of Uzbekistan, -The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Uzbekistan, -The Institute for Strategic and Interregional Studies under the President, -SCO (Shanghai Cooperation Organization), -Research centers, -UNWTO (United Nations World Tourism Organization), -Development Strategy Center, -MITSA (International Institute of Central Asia), -The Supreme Court of the Republic of Uzbekistan and its system organizations, -The Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Uzbekistan and its system organizations, -The Prosecutor General’s Office of the Republic of Uzbekistan and its system organizations, -“Black Swan Consulting” law firm,	Throughout 2026 Every month	Faculty dean and deputy dean, department heads, course coordinators

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -“Centil Law Firm,” -“Azizov & Partners (Uzbekistan),” -“PraelLegal Uzbekistan,” -“Legalmax Law Firm,” -The Ministry of Investments, Industry and Trade of the Republic of Uzbekistan, -The Chamber of Commerce and Industry of Uzbekistan, -The Central Bank, -Commercial banks, -Research centers, -The Customs Committee of the Republic of Uzbekistan, -Center for Macroeconomic Research, -The Ministry of Economy and Finance, -The Ministry of Poverty Reduction, -The National Statistics Committee, -The Migration Agency under the Cabinet of Ministers of the Republic of Uzbekistan, -City and district administrations.
--	---	--	--

This document is provided in English for informational purposes only. The original Uzbek version shall have legal force, and in the event of any discrepancy or inconsistency, the Uzbek version shall prevail.*